UPDATE ON REVIEW IN MALAYSIA

Lynas Corporation Limited (ASX:LYC, OTC:LYSDY) notes recent media reports stating that the Review Committee will hold a public hearing in Kuantan on 11 November 2018. Lynas welcomes public hearings. The media reports state that the purpose of the public hearing will be to obtain clarification from all stakeholders, including Lynas Malaysia, non-governmental organizations (NGOs) and experts in environmental management, public health and radiation safety.

The media reports also clarified that the extension of the temporary permission to store NUF at the Lynas Malaysia site, as referred to in the Lynas announcement dated 29 October 2018, is until mid-February 2019. The extension is consistent with the period requested by Lynas.
