Appeal Process in Malaysia

Lynas Corporation Limited (ASX:LYC, OTC:LYSDY) understands that an appeal to the Minister of Science, Technology and Innovation has been lodged under section 32 of the Atomic Energy Licensing Act in relation to the decision to approve the temporary operating licence (TOL) for the Lynas Advanced Materials Plant. The decision to approve the TOL was announced on 2 February 2012. Lynas understands that the appeal will be heard in April.

Lynas will keep the market informed of material developments in this matter.
