

4 October 2012

MALAYSIAN COURT UPDATE

Lynas Corporation (ASX:LYC, OTC:LYSDY) provides the following update to its ASX announcement dated September 25, 2012, relating to a judicial review of the company's Temporary Operating Licence (TOL) in Malaysia. The Kuantan High Court has adjourned until 10 October 2012 an application by parties associated with the Save Malaysia Stop Lynas (SMSL) group who are seeking an injunction against the TOL.

The deferral of the matter arose from additional affidavits submitted by Lynas. The applicants requested a brief adjournment to respond to those affidavits.

The injunction relates to an application by SMSL for judicial review of the Minister of Innovation, Science and Technology's decision in June to dismiss an appeal against decision of the Atomic Energy Licensing Board (AELB) to award the TOL.

For further information please contact Alistair Reid or Liz Whiteway on +61 2 8259 7100 or visit www.lynascorp.com

For all media enquiries please contact Michael Vaughan or Alan Jury from FTI Consulting on +61 2 8298 6100.